

Negative Balances

Unpaid Meal Charge Policy

In accordance with the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Nutritional Service (FNS) policy SP 46-2016: Unpaid Meal Charges - Local Meal Charge Policies and Hawaii Senate Bill 423, the following is the Department's policy:

Within The First 21 Days Of School

- Students who are unable to pay for their meal at the point of service shall be allowed to incur (meal only) charges for the first 21 days of school;
- The parent/guardian shall be responsible to repay all meal charges that are incurred during the first 21 days of the school year;

and

- After the first 21 days, unpaid meal charges should not exceed the cash equivalent of seven days.

Maximum Allowable Amount After 21 Days of School

(7 Breakfasts and 7 Lunches)

- Reduced price student's meal charge limit is $4.90.
- Full Paid student's (K-8) meal charge limit is $25.20.
- Full Paid student's (9-12) meal charge limit is $26.95.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.